 - Makeup sessions can also on Zoom any day of the week depending on instructor availability
 - Missed classes can also be made up by adding extra time on the next regularly scheduled class day. For example: if the regular class time is 45min, then the following regular class session would be 60min depending on instructor availability
- Free tutoring sessions are available, in-person or on zoom, for students who want extra instruction. These sessions are held on the same weekend as makeup sessions in 20-minute slots. Space is limited, check with your instructor.
